APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Navigate to McGill’s external career site:
   https://mcgill.wd3.myworkdayjobs.com/mcgill_careers

2. Sign into your candidate account or create one, as applicable.
   Important: Make sure to use a personal email address. DO NOT use a firstname.lastname@mail.mcgill.ca or firstname.lastname@mcgill.ca email address to create your account.

3. To search for jobs, navigate to the job search page by clicking the McGill logo in the top-left corner. Search for and select the job you wish to apply for. You may use the filters on the left-hand side to focus your search.
4. Click Apply to begin the application process. There are 7 steps to the application process.

5. On the first screen, you will be prompted to select your resume. This will allow automatic population of resume details, including name, location, education and work experience. If you do not wish to have you resume automatically parsed, you can also attach it at later step.

   Note: Due to their size and complexity, we recommend that you do not upload academic resumes using this parsing tool, you will be able to attach it at a later step.
If you have a resume, attach it below to automatically parse your resume information into the application form. Uploading your resume for parsing is optional, please also remember to review the information before submitting your application.

NOTE: Due to their size and complexity we recommend that you do not upload academic resumes using this parsing tool, instead attach your resume at the end of your application.

Upload either DOC, DOCX, HTML, PDF, or TXT file types (5MB max)

6. My Information: On this screen, you will enter your name and contact information. The required fields are:

- Country
- Legal First Name (please do not enter a preferred name)
- Legal Last Name (please do not enter a preferred name)
- Phone number
- How did you hear about us?

At the bottom of the form, you will be asked to identify whether you are a current/former student or a former McGill employee. If yes, make sure to indicate your McGill ID.

Once done, click Next.

7. My Experience: On this screen, update or add details about your work experience, education, skills, languages, social networks and websites.

You will also be required to upload a resume and cover letter. Academics may be requested to upload other documents pertaining to teaching and research.

You may upload as many files as needed insofar as the size of all files does not exceed the 5MB limit.
Should you wish to share documents that exceed the 5MB limit, you may link a shared online drive, like One-drive, Google Doc, Dropbox or YouTube link in the websites section.

9. Application Questions 2 of 2: This screen contains the Equity and Diversity survey. You may choose to complete this survey or not.

McGill University is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We welcome applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated groups to self-identify as part of the application process. Information shared through this process is held in strict confidence. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, accessibilityrequest.hr@mcgill.ca or 514-398-3711. Do you wish to complete this survey?
